

Land Acknowledgement

The University of Nebraska is a public, land-grant institution with campuses and programs across the State that reside on the past, present, and future homelands of the Pawnee, Ponca, Oto-Missouria, Omaha, Dakota, Lakota, Arapaho, Cheyenne, and Kaw Peoples, as well as the relocated Ho-Chunk (Winnebago), Iowa, and Sac and Fox Peoples.*^

This knowledge allows us to better understand that our opportunity to impact the State of Nebraska and beyond and occupy these lands is a result of a history of Native and Indigenous peoples' experience of displacement, violence, settlement, and survival—which continues to inform our present and future.

*Please note that this does not serve as the official Land Acknowledgement of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The information taken from UNL's DEI page serves as a resource and support for recognizing the original (past, present and future) homelands of Native and Indigenous peoples.
